

“Biological hazards” module

Short description

Duration: 2h00

Target audience: anyone working in the Faculty of Science or the CMU

Language: Basically in french, this module can be translated into english (simultaneous or consecutive translation)

Location: Specified in the final confirmation of registration (mail sent by STEPS)

Maximum number of participants: Determined according to the case (= room reserved)

Topics covered :

- The golden rules of laboratory work
- Possible entry routes
- The different classes of laboratory
- Surface decontamination
- What to do in case of an accident involving biological material